Would you like to learn Welsh to support your child's learning?

With the advent of Welsh lessons for all children in schools in Wales many parents feel they would like to learn Welsh at the same time as their children.

Would you like a "Welsh for the Family" class in your area?

"It's a win win situation. It enriches your lives, both as individuals and as a family."

More and more children are experiencing the advantages of a bilingual education. All children are now learning Welsh at school. As a result, the families of these children are keen to learn too, so that they can help support their child's learning. Coleg Gwents Regional Welsh Language Centre offers many classes at different times and venues to suit all.

There's plenty of help around...

- Colourful bilingual books
- DVDs and CDs
- lively TV programmes

People like you can give their children the best of both worlds.

Do you want to get started?

"It's great that you're learning Welsh too! Learning some Welsh at home and supporting your child is a massive help."
